

Church Committees and Job Description and contact person

Members of the committees are selected and screened by the Nominating Committee and then voted on by the church body

Bereavement Committee

This committee is composed of six members. It organizes ministry to the church family or their immediate relatives in time of bereavement.

Chairman: Diana Ezell (Contact: cdezell@windstream.net)

Building and Space Committee

This committee is composed of six members. It plans and oversees maintenance of church property and equipment and develops a schedule for regular painting and repair. Their responsibility includes all church buildings and all items inside the church and on the outside.

Chairman: Dale Garner (Contact: dalewg1943@gmail.com)

Children's Committee

This committee is composed of six members. Three at-large members: Children's Ministry Director, AWANA Commander/Director, and the Children's Choir Coordinator. The committee recommends and publicizes policies and procedures pertaining to the children's ministry as well as assist with enlistment, training, and screening workers.

Chairman: Brittney Puls (Contact: ryanandbrittneypuls@gmail.com)

Committee on Committee

This committee is composed of six members. They have the responsibility of surveying, recommending and presenting to the church for election those members who will serve on all church committees. Committee nominations are subject to the right of nomination from the church.

Chairman: Martha Holder (Contact: martyjo2003@yahoo.com)

Communications/Audio/Visual

This committee is composed of six members and the chairman will be the Director of Audio-Video-Light. The committee will supervise the broadcast of the Sunday Morning Worship Services, and any other broadcast, arrange for the audio taping of all regular church services.

Chairman: Bob Wheeler (Contact: bobwheeler@cox.net)

Family Life Committee

This committee is composed of 10 members. They have the responsibility of planning and coordinate activities that will promote "family togetherness".

Chairman: Jonathan Dove (Contact: jdove5@cox.net)

Flower Committee

This committee is composed of 6 members. The committee will supervise the placement of flowers in the sanctuary as well as other areas of the church for all worship services. The committee carries out seasonal and selected church themes.

Chairman: Scarlett Lambert (Contact: scrlltlambert@gmail.com)

Grounds Committee

This committee is composed of six members are responsible for supervising the maintenance and improvement of church grounds. They are responsible for recommending landscaping, adequate outdoor lighting, adequately marked parking spaces and appropriate signs to facilitate smooth traffic flow and parking.

Chairman: Roger Williamson (Contact: lindawilliamson@mac.com)

Memorial Committee

This committee is composed of 3 members. This committee works closely with the church staff in determining items to be purchased from the fund and will recommend to the church appropriate memorial items to be purchased from the fund.

Chairman: Tammye Stahler (Contact: tstahler@hps.k12.ar.us)

Missions Committee

This committee is composed of 6 members and will assist the church and its organizational leaders by making studies of community needs and recommending plans. It also promotes mission activities and educates the congregation in mission opportunities.

Chairman: Chris Reading (Contact: mcreading@windstream.net)

Music Committee

This committee is composed of six members. The church instrumentalists, Director of Graded Children's Choir and Minister of Music will serve as ex-officio members. The committee plans for and provides opportunities for programs in the music ministries.

Chairman: ?

Nominating Committee

The committee assist church leaders in discovering and enlisting qualified persons to fill church elected positions of leadership in their respective organizations.

Chairman: Linda Williamson (Contact: lindawilliamson@mac.com)

Outreach Committee

This committee is composed of six members. The committee will give leadership in emphasizing and maintaining a program of "outreach evangelism" through visitation and evangelism.

Carolyn Rook: (Contact: firstgraderook@yahoo.com)

Personnel Committee

This committee is composed of six members. It assists the Pastor in matters relating to personnel administration, survey the needs for additional church staff positions and prepare and keep updated job descriptions for all employed personnel.

Chairman: Pat Wheeler (Contact: patwheeler@cox.net)

Preschool Committee

The committee is composed of six members. The preschool school and Mother's day Out Coordinators are ex-officio members. The committee will recommend and publicize preschool policies and pro procedures, recommend the purchase of furnishings and supplies, and supervise the care and upkeep of rooms and equipment and work with the Personnel Committee in selecting, and enlisting, training and supervising any paid preschool workers.

Chairman: Laura Horn (Contact: laurabhorn@gmail.com)

Recreation Committee

The committee is composed of six members. The committee coordinates a recreation program that will nurture the spiritual, emotional and physical well being of our church members and guests. It gives direction and encouragement to sport activities in relation to other churches and civic groups. The committee is responsible for the purchase and care of recreational equipment and work with the Grounds Committee and The Building and Space Committee in settling regulations which apply to the use of the outdoor recreational facilities and equipment.

Chairman: Ross Halsted (?)

Risk Management Committee

Is composed of three members. (Listed on FBC Committee list, no description in by-laws)

Chairman: Chris McNew (Contact: chrismcn73@gmail.com)

Stewardship Committee

The committee is composed of six members. The Church Treasurer and Assistant Treasurer Are ex-officio members. The committee shall be responsible for development of a program which includes budget development, budget subscription, budget administration and stewardship development.

Chairman: Cathy Brandt (Contact: ccbrandt@cox.net)

Youth Committee

The committee is composed of six adult members. The Minister of Youth will also serve as ex-officio member. The committee will work in a continuous program of evaluation of the church's ministry to its youth, striving at all times to help develop the highest type of leadership, aims and activates

Chairman: Marcus Jones (Contact: marcusjones@jonespt.net)